

I have heard that the FCC is looking at measures that would weaken strong consumer protection laws such as the Wisconsin "Do Not Call" list, and am writing to state my absolute opposition to such measures. The WI law is fair and it works and should be left alone. Commercial entities have no free speech or other access rights inside my home and I do not want to be called. In my opinion, that should be the end of the debate.